

Confluences

Privacy Policy

Confluences is a location-based audio player that uses location services to track users' movement in order to play audio at specific locations while they are at the Ucross Artist Residency campus and ranch.

Location services are disabled when outside this region.

Data is not collected or used for any other purpose.